

I am opposed to the FCC proposal that would lessen the Indiana Telephone Privacy law protections. The current Indiana law has greatly reduced the unwanted, unwelcome calls from businesses that have no right to bother my privacy. I believe that I have a right to not be bothered by these callers, and the Indiana law currently in effect has accomplished this matter.

Thank you for accepting my comments.

Fredrick Kerby
Kokomo, Indiana